Supervisors Refuse DC Sales Tax Vote

Daly City residents may have to wait until next year before they can decide the fate of sales tax at the polls.

The county board of supervisors last week refused to heed the 3-2 DC council resolution asking that sales tax be placed on the November general election ballot as a referendum issue.

County Clerk John A. Bruning reminded that other cities and special districts seeking settlement of similar local issues on the November ballot also were turned down. He said supervisors believe the regular November ballot is "too long" and that adding the extra propositions to it "would make it too much of a load this time."

Bruning noted that the last time a city measure was consolidated on a general election ballot was in 1948. He suggested the council try to get the sales tax issue on the next county election ballot or next May when school trustee elections are conducted.

The council "majority" for placing sales tax to referendum vote, Mayor Micheal DeBernardi, Edward Dennis and Bob St. Clair, Monday night in regular session said they would attempt to put sales tax to a test at the polls as soon as possible—probably next May at the school trustee election. They instructed City Attorney Paul Hupf to keep in touch with the county on all election dates and to have the DC resolution for a referendum on hand for authorization by the council a second time. Ex-mayor Joseph Verducci, absent Monday night, and Francis Pacelli are pro-sales tax and voted against placing it before the voters.

There is a strong possibility the county's next election after the November balloting will be on charter amendments—prior to the regular school trustee election next spring.

Even if sales tax in Daly City had been placed on the November ballot and defeated, the levy would not cease here until July 1 next year.

Construction During August Hits $778,000

After three months of soaring beyond the $1 million mark, construction in Daly City during the month of August took an expected drop—though it was still a healthy sum.

According to Asst. Bldg. Inspector Maurice Clark, 105 permits were issued last month for construction totaling $778,441.

Permits for 81 new homes most of them in the Doelger tract south of Westmoor avenue) comprised $700,922 of the August total.

Last month's permits included: commercial alteration (ABC Market), $32,000; 15 dwelling alterations, $18,126; new commercial establishment (Junipero Serra liquor store), $17,500; two neon signs, $2300; repairing two fire-damaged homes, $1700, and one swimming pool, Doelger apartments, $685.

DC Wife, Daughter Hurt In Two-Car Crash On Mission

Mrs. Helen F. Souza, 38, and her daughter, Mabel, 15, of 98 Valley street, required Junipero Serra hospital treatment last Thursday for injuries they suffered when their car was rammed by another southbound auto on Mission street at the Parkview intersection.

Mrs. Souza told Officer Al Nicolini she hit her brakes when a third auto entered Mission from Parkview. The Souza vehicle then was jolted by one driven by James L. Webb, 18, a painting company worker from Sharp Park.

YWCA Director To Address Chamber

Miss Patricia A. Tiggard, director of the North San Mateo County YWCA branch, will discuss the organization's program here as guest speaker of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce next week.

The regular meeting of the chamber is scheduled for Thursday noon, September 18, at Joe's of Westlake.

City Gets Palisades Park Sites

The city council Monday night sealed a long-standing annexation agreement with developer Henry Doelger which gives Daly City two new park sites in the recreation-starved Palisades section of Westlake.

Mayor Micheal DeBernardi, primarily praising Councilman Bob St. Clair for completing a "deal that was left dormant by the former council for three and a half years," said the pact with Doelger was "extremely beneficial to the city."

In keeping with annexation pact Doelger has agreed to give the city two one-acre sites in the Palisades, $10,000 to equip them, and has granted the city option to purchase four more acres on his property south of Westmoor High for another park facility.

The city may not exercise this option if it can purchase an adequate park site and fire station site from the high school district on present Westmoor High acreage.

If the high school deal falls through, the council undoubtedly will buy the four-acre Doelger site, which the builder would deliver graded. The city would have to foot the cost of streets and improvements.

If the council buys the four-acre Doelger site it forfeits $20,000 which Doelger has agreed to give the city if the latter purchases or leases the high school property.

The Palisades sites are located on Palisades drive and Northridge. They will supplement the recreation facilities for west-of-Skyline residents who currently are utilizing the Westmoor High playground facilities, a joint summer project with the city recreation department.

DeBernardi, who said the pact with Doelger on the sites was fully endorsed by the recreation and planning commissions, said the council "will never get in a bind again on new park sites."

He added that negotiations are under way with the Zita Corporation on city park and recreation needs in the St.

Watts Is Among 15 For Post

Councilmen this week are individually studying the names of 15 applicants for the job of city manager.

Choice of the new chief administrative office may be made at the next regular council meeting on Monday evening, September 22, though the vacancy may not be filled until early October.

According to Mayor Micheal DeBernardi, the State Personnel Board screening committee, hired by the council to accept applications and rate the candidates, interviewed 56 men for the post vacated by Howard Stites.

Acting City Manager George Watts, appointed when Stites ended his office duties here July 14, is among the 15 applicants recommended by the state board for council consideration.

After checking the applications, the council will select whom they consider the best qualified applicants for personal interviews.

Watts, 40, became city finance director last October. Three members of the council reportedly favor him for the appointment as city manager.

Westmoor Ave. Contract Costs City $53,590

The lowest of three bidders, Lowrie Company, Monday night was awarded a $53,590 contract to realign Daly City's share of old Edgemar road (Westmoor avenue).

Public Works Director Otis Calhoun said the work should take about 40 days.

The council, facing an unusually short agenda Monday night, instructed City Attorney Paul Hupf to check out an agreement drafted by the county-operated animal pound service here.

The county took over pound duties here July 1. It will continue to collect the fees on licenses and answer all calls from residents.

Acting City Mgr. George Watts said he had discussed a Daly City - Pacifica animal shelter, to be operated by the county, with Karl Baldwin, Pacifica city manager. San Bruno also may be interested in the tieup.

Progress on the city's off-street parking problems was effected Monday night as the council established a two-hour time limit for shoppers at the city-leased lot off Mission near the Bepler street post office. The new edict stipulates that the lot must be clear of all vehicles from 2 a.m. to 6 a.m.

Councilmen Edward Dennis and Francis Pacelli, authors of this "trial-basis" parking plan, said they hoped the measure would help the merchants.

Dennis also asked that the police department crack down on "owner less" vehicles parked for several days on many city streets.

In other matters, the council:

1. Held over for study final acceptance of streets in Sherman Heights subdivision.
2. Okayed lease (at token fee) of Westlake Library site lot on Southgate to Sea Scout Ship 248 for sale of Christmas trees.
3. Awarded contract on new pump house for Palisades reservoir to the low bidder, L. J. Canepa company, $2488.
4. Moved to discontinue rental of recreation department storage house at 255 Vista Grande avenue.
5. Established two-hour

LINDA MAR PUZZLER

Freeway To Stymie Coast High School?

Trustees may have to abandon plans to build a high school in Linda Mar on the Peralta-Adobe site near Shamrock Farms.

This alarming fact came to light last week when Supt. Edward Morgan learned from the Division of Highways that the proposed south-of-Linda Mar freeway route may have to be channeled near the Peralta-Adobe site.

Trustees were divided Monday night on abandoning the site as Ray Whitney's motion to choose another site, seconded by Lyal Ingersoll, was voted down, 3-2.

Morgan, the board, and Falk and Booth, architects for the Linda Mar school, will discuss the freeway extension possibilities next Tuesday in Sacramento with State School Planning officials.

It is likely they may have to work for another site in Linda Mar if state officials so recommend in view of the freeway interruption. This decision could come at the September 22 regular trustee meeting.

Soil tests on the Shamrock ranch-bordering Peralta-Adobe site, submitted to the board Monday night by Brewer and Associates, were favorable, Morgan said. This site, selected this summer after extensive studies of at least six sites, is highly suitable for the school.

On Monday, September 29, the school board will host the Daly City council in a special meeting to discuss the district's share of Westmoor avenue improvements, a long-term pact on joint-use of recreation facilities, and Crocker Estate annexation progress.

HIGH SCHOOLS GREET 2548, EXPECT MORE

Westmoor greeted 1348 students of the 1505 who registered earlier. Jefferson's attendance Monday hit about 1200 of the 1349 who registered there.

Supt. Edward Morgan, noting that both schools are jammed to capacity, said approximately 100 more students should report to both schools by the end of this week.

The certificated staff (teachers and administrators) numbers 137 and the classified ranks total 73, some of the latter on a part-time basis.

Boy, 9, Badly Hurt 'Playing' In Family Car

Richard Perruquet, son of Vergil Perruquet, 808 Lausanne avenue, reportedly was playing in the front seat of the auto, parked in the driveway, and he released the emergency brake. The car rolled downhill and then crashed into the side of the home at 296 Chester street.

Extent of the child's injuries was not disclosed by St. Joseph's hospital spokesmen. At press time, the family could not be reached for comment.

Party 'Crashers' Foiled By Cops

Eight San Francisco teenagers were rounded up by four Daly City police officers late Saturday night after the former tried to "crash" a teen party at the home of Doyle Spencer, 185 Santa Cruz avenue.

The intruders, halted before a major ruckus could develop, were taken to police headquarters for questioning, then released. A switchblade knife belonging to one of them was confiscated.

ANNUAL EXHIBITION THIS SUNDAY

War Memorial Hosts Garden Club's Show

Dignitaries and folks from all walks of Daly City community life will converge on War Memorial Building this Sunday to feast their eyes on the Garden Club's fifth annual flower show.

According to Mrs. Joseph Schultz, club president, this free-of-charge spectacle "will truly be better than ever."

Theme for the program is "Cavalcade of Daly City," carried out in floral displays and artistic arrangements, and supplemented by photos of Daly City in bygone days.

Climaxing the Garden Club year, the show ends months of careful preparations and cooperation between the sponsoring group and local nurseries, the city and federal government, merchants and every-day citizens.

Growing in membership, the local Garden Club each year has displayed its talents in the annual show to near capacity crowds. The Daly City Municipal Band, under the baton of George Brenner, will add to the festive mood this Sunday with a 2 to 4 p.m. concert outside the War Memorial building (on the front lawn).

ADULT SCHOOL IS BOOMING

Dr. John Ivan, director of the Jefferson Adult School program, is beaming and busting his buttons this week as the new term begins for the "older folks" at six campuses.

He estimates that by the end of next June, about 2000 persons will have enrolled in the many classes offered during the evening hours. Many of these students are working for high school diplomas—full well realizing that it's never too late to learn.

As in years past under Ivan's direction, the district is offering an outstanding program. The fee required for the instruction is indeed nominal, considering the profits to be realized by the individual students.

Participation in the adult school program was never better here—a tribute to Ivan and his capable staff.

DRUM Corps of Holy Angels Church of Colma won honors recently in the parade around Oakland's Lake Merritt, climaxing the 28th annual convention of the Italian-Catholic Federation. Though in the junion division, the local youngsters received a "senior" rating.

FOURTH ANNUAL HOLY ANGELS FESTIVAL OPENS NEXT WEEK

Holy Angels Parish of Colma has scheduled its fourth annual fall festival for September 18-21.

The Saturday matinee will be geared to the interests of youngsters. Special performances by Cantini, the magician, are scheduled throughout the afternoon of September 20. Cantini has appeared on the "You Asked for It" TV program where he hypnotized a rabbit for Art Baker.

The festival will feature booths from cakes to plants, and a snack bar will also open for the convenience of the public.

A delicious chicken dinner is promised by dinner chairman John Putkey and his crew on Sunday, September 21.

The festival will be climaxed by the presentation of the main award on Sunday, September 21, which consists of a two weeks' trip to Rome for two.

Panella Steers North County 'Crusade' Appeal

Plans for the solicitation of north county business firms during the United Crusade campaign were finalized at a recent meeting hosted by Arnold L. Panella of Daly City, who is the United Crusade business division chairman for north county.

Panella says he feels confident that north county will raise the amount of money that is expected of it. The Crusade quota this year for the county has been set at $666,784.

'GET-ACQUAINTED' TEA PARTY PLANNED BY JEFF HIGH PTA

Jefferson High School's PTA has set aside Thursday afternoon, September 25, from 2:30 to 4 for a "get-acquainted" tea party to welcome mothers of entering freshmen students. The gathering will be held in the school cafeteria where refreshments will be served.

The beginning of a semester is the most opportune time to become familiar with your youngster's teachers and surroundings, and all new mothers are urged to attend.

The tea was the chief topic of discussion at the first executive board meeting of the fall calendar, held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. Kusber, corresponding secretary, and presided over by Mrs. B. Greenameyer, Jefferson PTA president.

Mrs. B. Jensen, program chairman, presented a tentative schedule of the year's program, consisting of such important and timely topics as speeches on radiation fallout, audio-visual education, mental health, and the history of the PTA. At least two programs, the Xmas music affair and Founder's Day were previewed.

A committee of six was chosen to take charge of the tea, composed of: Mrs. J. Kusber, table arrangement; Mrs. R. Pool and Mrs. A. Eason, cookies; Mrs. G. Johnson, registration, and Mrs. Higgins and Mrs. H. Bloom, hospitality. Board members will assist.

The meeting adjourned after refreshments in the social room off the fuchsia filled patio of Mrs. Kusber's garden.

Highway Patrol Cautions Drivers In School Areas

Watch out for children who may not be watching for you," the California Highway Patrol reminded motorists today, urging that all drivers review traffic relating to the safety of school children.

"Youngsters throughout the state are returning to school after a carefree summer," stated Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "With them will be many children starting off to school for the first time.

"The little ones are upredictable and may dash across the street or from behind a parked car at any time," he reminded. "Each driver must exercise extreme caution and obey all traffic laws to avoid striking an unsuspecting child who may not be watching traffic.

"A concentration of bicycle riders will also be found near schools," he added, "making special alertness on the part of every motorist absolutely necessary."

Caldwell also cautioned parents to review the rules for safe walking and safe bicycle riding with their children and urged that mother or dad help plan the safest route to school for those starting for the first time.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

The telephone rang and the voice of KPIX's publicity director Al Baccari inquired, "would you be a judge for the semi-finals of the dance contest on the "Ted Randal Show?" We agreed with some hesitation, thinking this was a subject on which we could well use some research. So that is why we found ourselves last Wednesday talking to the show's floor director and getting last-minute instructions. Also judges were the well-known movie and television star, Earl Holliman, and two teachers from Leon dancing school. While waiting behind stage for the contest, we took advantage of the time to interview the personable young star. Having played parts in over 21 movies including "The Rainmaker" and "Giant," Mr. Holliman has also had notable success in many "live" television productions including appearances on "Playhouse 90," "Studio One" and "Kraft Theater." In answer to our inquiry as to how he liked working in television he said "Live television is the most frightening, frustrating, yet stimulating experience I've had since becoming actor."

It was time for the judging so we went on stage. Usually hosted by Ted Randal, the program that day was emceed by newscaster John Weston who stepped into Ted's place when the star suddenly became ill. (not seriously ill". Ted was expected to return to the show within a couple of days). Possessing a wonderful voice and a great deal of personal charm and poise, John carried off the show remarkably well, and demonstrated talent for ad libbing.

JEFF HIGH GRIDDERS

McGrath Says Tribe 11 Will Be Threat

Coach Joe McGrath calmly observed this week that Jeff High's Indians will be among the contenders in the upcoming Peninsula League varsity football wars.

The Daly City gridders, 3-5 in the record book last year, expect to bounce back and should be able to bid for the title.

Gone is passing whiz Paul Tapia. But McGrath's new squad has more experience up front and certainly much more overall team speed.

Jeff will be led by All-Peninsula end Pete Garcia, perhaps the best prep lineman in the state.

The shoes in the Tribe's T quarterback spot will be filled, and most adequately, Joe thinks, by senior Mike Wills, a 150-pounder with much determination. He's backed up by Roger Stahl, a junior.

Wills has exceptional targets in Garcia and senior veteran Feliz Valdez at ends, and Mike's backfield mates all are in the breakaway class.

The Indian ball carriers are headed by junior Art Banos, 165, and John Margaroni, 130, at halves, and senior Jim Ahern, 160, at fullback. Jerry Kennedy, a strong senior, and Ted Sailor, soph speedster Rey Javier and Mike Pechina will be pressing for ball-packing duty.

McGrath also expects much from ends Ira Ingersoll, John Horn and Walt Schuetz, tackles Eric Neuner and Dick Ward, guards Dennis Cardinale and Jerry Sifford—just to name a few.

Sixty-five strong, the Indians this week are running through basic exercises. First scrimmage will be next week. The locals open on Friday, September 26, when Riordan's Crusaders invade the Jeff campus for an afternoon clash.

OPEN VS. RIORDAN

Jeff Varsity Gridders Have 5 Games Here

Coach Joe McGrath's Jefferson High varsity footballers have six Peninsula League games and three practice encounters on their calendar this fall as they attempt to better last season's 3-5 record.

The Indians have five home games—meeting Riordan, Encinal of Alameda and Cubberly of Palo Alto in exhibitions, and Westmoor and Hillsdale in PL competition.

McGrath's eleven will travel for league games to Capuchino, San Mateo and South San Francisco. The traditional "Big Game" with South City will be played on Wednesday night, November 26, under the lights in SSF.

The Jeff opener here with Riordan, September 26, begins at 3:15 p.m. In October all Jeff games start at 3 o'clock, and in November the afternoon clashes begin at 2:45 p.m.

Jeff had a 3-3 league record last season and lost to Serra and Riordan in practice scraps. Highlight of last campaign was the Indians' 68-45 loss to Capuchino, a thriller that has no equal in the memories of Peninsula fans.

Complete schedule:

Sept. 26 Riordan *
Oct. 3 Encinal *
Oct. 17 Westmoor *
Oct. 24 Hillsdale *
Oct. 31 Capuchino
Nov. 7 Cubberley *
Nov. 14 Burlingame
Nov. 21 San Mateo
Nov. 26 South SF
* home game

DC Drug Nine Finish Season With 32 Wins

Lowell Creighton's Daly City Drug baseballers swept two more foes last weekend to wrap up another rewarding diamond season.

Terry Christman's two-hitter Saturday stopped the PAL squad, 15-1, and Barry Krohn on Sunday checked Robinson Construction, 6-2.

Three hits by Sonny Stoller and a pair by Mike O'Leary were the main blows in the PAL victory. O'Leary also was the big sticker with two drives in the Sunday triumph.

Creighton's team, sponsored by Tom Bournellis, finished the campaign with 32 wins and only eight losses. En route to this mark they bagged the local Sunday League title the second year in a row.

Golden West 'Y'

The Golden West YMCA Mothers' Club wil lhold its first fall meeting at 8 p.m. next Tuesday at 338 Eucalyptus drive.

Belmont Cyclists

With the curtain coming down on the racing season at Belmont Speedway next week, plenty of action is expected for Friday night's AMA-sanctioned motorcycle show.

Promoter Ted Smyth looks for an entry list of some 48 riders wanting to get in their last licks for the year.

The first race rolls at 8:30.

Hardtops Await Belmont Finale

The final NASCAR hardtop auto racing program of 1958 will be staged at Belmont Speedway next Wednesday night, and with double-points going to the drivers, plenty of sparks will fly during the 12-event show.

Ed Andrews is No. 1 in points for the California title as well as Belmont, but with the added points, Ted Hansen and Marshall Sargent will be trying to run him down.

Cops, Firemen Ink For Annual Baseball 'War'

Daly City's police and firemen are ready to swing into practice for their annual benefit baseball game, scheduled for Marchbanks Park on Sunday afternoon, September 28.

Chief Elmer Kennedy, whose smoke-eaters spanked the gendarmes something awful last year, today said he "gladly" accepted Chief Roland Petrocchi's challenge for revenge.

Hefty Jimmy Welsh, Daly City's veteran police officer, leads thus far in the annual Knights of Columbus "Hole In One" tourney at Colma Driving Range. The competition ends this Sunday evening.

Big Jim stroked the ball to within 7¼ inches of the cup last Thursday night—the closest any of the hundreds of drivers have come. He won a haircut, $5 baking shop order and an electric blanket.

Marian Council, sponsor of the tourney, reports that response has been exceptional.

Westmoor 11 To Host Scots In Inaugural

Coach Pete Matisi's Rams, who will play five games this fall on their own gridiron, open Peninsula League action at Jefferson on Friday, October 17.

The complete Westmoor schedule: Sept. 26, Carlmont; Oct. 3, at Serra; Oct. 10, Riordan; Oct. 17, at Jefferson; Oct. 24, at San Mateo; Oct. 31, Burlingame; Nov. 7, South SF; Nov. 14, at Hillsdale; Nov. 21, Capuchino.

Sebastiani Treats San Pedro Champs

Stylish Thievery

Matisi Drills 52 Westmoor High Grid Hopefuls For Varsity Duty

Coach Pete Matisi's Westmoor High varsity football squad began serious contact work this week as the head man drilled 52 candidates for the 1958 campaign.

Winless in their first Peninsula League season a year ago, the Rams, according to Matisi, this time "will be still handicapped by line inexperience, but we'll be much faster."

The Rams on paper look promising with their winged-T offense, with veteran QB Dave Simons and HB Larry Schoenfeldt returning. Tom McHugh, outstanding baseball catcher, and last year's all-purpose Bob Roller, appear the other backfield starters.

Guard Paul Giomi is the lone vet up front, but Matisi is "high" on three products of the frosh eleven. Guard La Siegel, tackle Andy Saranch and center Bill Wade will gunning for regular duty. L ry Elmore, defensive back '57, is a top end prospect.

Biggest boy on the roste Tiny Villines, 6-5 and pounds. He's out for tackle middle guard defense duty.

The Rams open here on day afternoon, September hosting Carlmont in a prac game. They travel to face ra the next week, then c with Jeff High at Jeff in PL opener October 17.

MIDGET LEAGUE

South Sunset Bags Another No-Hitter!

Even should the South Sunset Whites fail to overtake the Portola Giants for the DC Midget League title, it won't be because the Sunset pitching is too weak.

Lest week a South Sunset hurler chalked up the third no-hitter for his team in the fast-closing loop. This time the perfect job belonged to tiny Hugh Miller. He blanked Parkmerced, 5-0, striking out 8 and walking 5.

A homer by Mickey O'Brien and Bruce Brachett's triple did the most damage for Miller's mates.

San Pedro Lunch moved to the top by nipping the PAL Braves, 7-6. Broadmoor Youth Association downed the PAL Red Sox, 7-1, and the DC F outlasted PAL No. 1, 6-2.
